BIO – Lawrence Prescott

Lawrence Prescott was born in Guyana, South America and immigrated to America, where he lived in New York and New Jersey prior to settling in Atlanta, GA. He is the father to three amazing daughters and two beautiful grandchildren.

Lawrence has worked in the entertainment industry for over 35+years, as producer, photographer, actor, cameraman and production assistant in media, theater and film productions. He is the founder and CEO of Caribbean Life TV group (CLTV) which consists of an online TV and Radio network and Production. The CLTV studio, was acquired 3 years ago during the pandemic and has since grown into an entertainment and production studio for many films, TV shows, radio programs and photography.

Caribbean Life TV network was a dream built on passion for Photography and Videography. With a vast amount of experience including North Ruimveldt Drama Club and Theater Guild in Guyana, Guyana Cultural Center, Marta Drama Club, Shaquille O’Neal Comedy All Star Production Assistance, the exclusive photographer for past Presidents of Guyana visits to Atlanta Georgia, student of Clayton State University Digital Photography, all helped to cement the love of film, photography and production for Lawrence Prescott.

Lawrence attended Clayton State University Continuing Education program where he majored in Digital Photography and was later invited to be a Key Note Speaker for their Continuing Education Graduation. In his corporate career he has held various positions at MARTA transit, AirTran Airways and Southwest Airlines.

Lawrence Prescott is currently on the board of the Jamaican American International Chamber of Commerce (JAICC) and is a former board member of the Caribbean Association of Georgia (CAG) and the Guyana Association of Georgia. He was recognized by the Caribbean Association of Georgia for his continuous sponsorship of their Annual Toy Drive and by the Georgia Secretary of State for being an Outstanding Georgia Citizen. Earlier this year he received the The Atlanta Community award for his Outstanding Community Leadership and the JAICC honored him with the Spirit Award for his “strong sense of Community involvement.”

Today, Caribbean Life TV and Radio continues to be the home for the Caribbean diaspora to share programming on lifestyles, cultures and entertainment of the people and community at large. The company is equipped to work on many areas of film and production and covers a vast amount of Caribbean events around the country and internationally.
